SECURE MESSENGER

INDUSTRY

Hightech&Software

PRODUCT

The product is a next-generation secure messaging app that protects your private messages end-to-end, even after the messages have been read. Industrial-strength encryption keeps hackers out, while patent-pending screenshot protection system helps recipients avoid making and sharing unauthorized copies.

You can choose how quickly messages self-destruct, or a variety of ways to send funny natural reactions, draw and write on photos that are being sent or even recall messages already sent to the recipient.

INNOVECS CONTRIBUTION

Full mobile development lifecycle for iOS
