CLIENT

Our client is a provider of taxi booking application.

PRODUCT

The product is an application that allows to quickly and simply book a taxi in Kiev. The application helps the users to order a taxi wherever they are, directly from the smartphone. You can check your history and create a favorites list of places.

To order a taxi, you just need to enter the place of departure and your destination. There is also a variety of other options available: placing an order for a certain time, ordering a car with air-conditioning, securing extra baggage transportation and other services.

Taxi booking service is integrated with most Kiev taxi services: more than two-thirds of dispatchers are our partners.
